

Consumer Technology Summit

Quality, one-on-one meetings that will increase your business

The Electronics Retail Summit is a unique consumer electronics industry event where retailers get together with vendors in private, pre-scheduled meetings that build relationships and generate new business. Attend three months worth of meetings in just three days.

Unique Format - 100% of your meeting time is dedicated to private, pre-scheduled meetings with vendors.

Access the Latest Technology Products - Meet with a variety of new and established vendors and discover the latest technology products you may have missed at other shows.

Efficiently Organized - This event is extremely efficient and well-organized. All meetings are pre-scheduled and carried out in a timely manner.

Tools for a Successful Event - Attendees are provided an iPad and use of the event software to view schedules, vendor and product information and to create notes for follow-up.

No Cost to Attend - Retail buyers attend this event at no cost, including round-trip transportation, meals, hotel nights, pre-scheduled vendor meetings and more!

Registration is open!

The Electronics Retail Summit is free to invited retail buyers and includes roundtrip transportation, meals, hotel accommodations, evening events, pre-scheduled vendor meetings, and internet-based planning tools.
